

Apostrophes of Possession

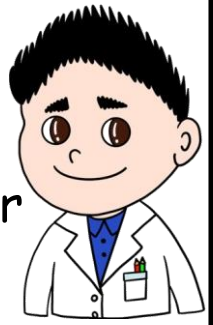

Add apostrophes to the sentences.

1. Simons car wouldn't start, so Jakes brother bought his car down to help out.
2. We are going to Sarahs house for lunch and then Peters house for dinner.
3. Mandy and Millys mother won't be picking you up anymore. It'll be Johns dad.
4. The dogs toys are all over the backyard. Can you pick them up and put them in your sisters bag.
5. The farmers house was so big that his wifes 5 cars could fit in the garage!
6. Sams brother was so sick that he needed to visit the doctors office.
7. Amys soccer team won every game in their season! They had a party at the coachs house.
8. Michaels dogs loved walking in the park. The parks gardener also loved seeing them.

Apostrophes of Possession

Add apostrophes to the sentences.

1. Simon's car wouldn't start, so Jake's brother bought his car down to help out.
2. We are going to Sarah's house for lunch and then Peter's house for dinner.
3. Mandy and Milly's mother won't be picking you up anymore. It'll be John's dad.
4. The dog's / dogs' toys are all over the backyard. Can you pick them up and put them in your sister's bag.
5. The farmer's house was so big that his wife's 5 cars could fit in the garage!
6. Sam's brother was so sick that he needed to visit the doctor's office.
7. Amy's soccer team won every game in their season! They had a party at the coach's house.
8. Michael's dogs loved walking in the park. The park's gardener also loved seeing them.