

Apostrophes of Possession

Add apostrophes to the sentences.

1. We went to Sams house but he wasn't there. He was at Brians house.
2. The shops owner wasn't very nice. Mikes dad shouted at him and we left.
3. The local soccer teams coach was the best in the country. He coached my brothers team.
4. "You should think about your childs health. Jacks illness is getting worse," said the doctor.
5. Peters car broke down. His sisters car is also broken, so there is no one to help him.
6. The local stray cats collar was black with no name. The butchers cat had the same collar.
7. Marys birthday is in May. Her brothers birthday is the same day, so they have a combined party.
8. The cars paint had worn off. The owners interest in the car had faded.

Apostrophes of Possession

Add apostrophes to the sentences.

1. We went to Sam's house but he wasn't there. He was at Brian's house.
2. The shop's owner wasn't very nice. Mike's dad shouted at him and we left.
3. The local soccer team's coach was the best in the country. He coached my brother's team.
4. "You should think about your child's health. Jack's illness is getting worse," said the doctor.
5. Peter's car broke down. His sister's car is also broken, so there is no one to help him.
6. The local stray cat's collar was black with no name. The butcher's cat had the same collar.
7. Mary's birthday is in May. Her brother's birthday is the same day, so they have a combined party.
8. The car's paint had worn off. The owner's interest in the car had faded.