

Punctuation Task Cards

Adjectives

Underline the adjectives

The wind was strong and the clouds were dark. Peter ran and ran. He didn't know where the evil monsters were and he didn't want to find out. Peter was brave and strong.

Card #1

Underline the adjectives

Amy was a young girl but she had big dreams. She wanted to be a rich doctor, just like her smart mother. Her father was qu

Underline the adjectives

The old house stood quietly on the corner of the scary street. No one lived in it. It was big and dirty. The people in the area were terrified.

Underline the

Noisy birds chirped. The trees danced in the breeze. The grass was quiet as the wind passed their way through.

Underline the adjectives

John's clothes were fancy. His dad was rich and bought him anything. He bought him nice toys and new shoes. John was a lucky boy.

Card #9

Under

The mountain was high. However, the climber was not afraid. The climber was adventurous. The climber climbed.

Underline the adjectives

Andy ran for his life. He was scared, but he was fast. There was no way the giant trolls would catch him. They were far too slow.

Card #13

Underline the adjectives

Her blue pen broke, so she used her red pen. The teacher, who was mean, told her off for using pen. However, she wasn't afraid of her teacher.

Card #14

Underline the adjectives

The cheeky fox stole five loaves of bread from the small bakery on the corner of the street. The owners were angry, but the fox was fast.

Underline the adjectives

His new shop was busy. There were many excited customers. They bought all of the new products and were very happy.

Underline the adjectives

Peter was fast. He played on the best soccer team in the city. They won every game and their coach was very smart.

Card #5

Under

Mandy was finished. She was boring and her homework was long. Her homework was boring and her homework was long.

Card #6

Underline the adjectives

The dirty rats ran all over the yard. Their little feet were disgusting and their smell was strong. They had long, black tails.

Card #11

Under

His baseball was good. They played all the time. Their uniforms were old and they reflected their team's colors.

Underline the adjectives

The nights were cold and the days were long. Peter did not know how he would survive the harsh desert. He had been lost for two terrible days.

Card #17

Underline the adjectives

Tom didn't like pizza. He thought it was disgusting. Tom only ate small hamburgers and chicken. They were easy to eat.

Underline the adjectives

The black cats ran away from the mean dogs. The cats were quiet and the dogs were mean. The cats were scared, but the dogs were mean. The cats were scared. They hated each other.

Card #7

Underline the adjectives

Her sister was so kind that she gave away all of her nice toys. Her brother was mean and picked on the weak kids. He was very nasty.

Card #8

Underline the adjectives

The dirty chickens ran around eating tiny worms. They loved them and could eat them all day. The chickens were too fast for the small worms.

Card #19

Underline the adjectives

The café on the corner was popular. They served hot coffee. The people of the small town. The café was very popular.

Card #20

Underline the adjectives

The wind was strong and the clouds were dark. Peter ran and ran. He didn't know where the evil monsters were and he didn't want to find out. Peter was brave and strong.

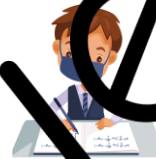

Card #1

Underline the adjectives

Amy was a young girl but she had big dreams. She wanted to be a rich doctor, just like her smart mother. Her father was quiet and kind.

Card #2

Underline the adjectives

The old house stood quietly on the corner of the scary street. No one lived in it. It was big and dirty. The people in the area were terrified.

Card #3

Underline the adjectives

Noisy birds chirped and the tall trees danced in the wind. The green grass was quiet as tiny worms made their way through the dirt.

Card #4

Preview

Underline the adjectives

Peter was fast. He played on the best soccer team in the city. They won every game and their coach was very smart.

Card #5

Underline the adjectives

Mandy was happy that school was finished. She thought school was boring and her teacher was mean. Her homework was very hard.

Card #6

Underline the adjectives

The black cats ran away from the loud dogs. The cats were quiet and peaceful, but the dogs were mean and scary. They hated each other.

Card #7

Underline the adjectives

Her sister was so kind that she gave away all of her nice toys. Her brother was mean and picked on the weak kids. He was very nasty.

Card #8

Preview

Underline the adjectives

John's clothes were fancy. His dad was rich and bought him anything. He bought him nice toys and new shoes. John was a lucky boy.

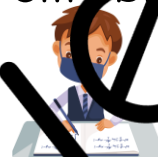

Card #9

Underline the adjectives

The mountain was tall and scary. However, the team of climbers were not afraid. They were brave and adventurous. They began their climb.

Card #10

Underline the adjectives

The dirty rats ran all over the yard. Their little feet were disgusting and their smell was strong. They had long, black tails.

Card #11

Underline the adjectives

His baseball team were not very good. They always lost and were sad all the time. Their uniform was blue which reflected their feelings.

Card #12

Underline the adjectives

Andy ran for his life. He was scared, but he was fast. There was no way the giant trolls would catch him. They were far too slow.

Card #13

Underline the adjectives

Her blue pen broke, so she used her red pen. The teacher, who was mean, told her off for using pen. However she wasn't afraid of her teacher.

Card #14

Underline the adjectives

The cheeky fox stole five loaves of bread from the small bakery on the corner of the street. The owners were angry, but the fox was fast.

Card #15

Underline the adjectives

His new shop was busy. There were many excited customers. They bought all of the new products and were very happy.

Card #16

Underline the adjectives

The nights were cold and the days were long. Peter did not know how he would survive the harsh desert. He had been lost for two terrible days.

Card #17

Underline the adjectives

Tom didn't like pizza. He thought it was disgusting. Tom only ate small hamburgers and chicken nuggets. They were easy to eat and tasty.

Card #18

Underline the adjectives

The dirty chickens ran around eating tiny worms. They loved them and could eat them all day. The chickens were too fast for the small worms.

Card #19

Underline the adjectives

The café on the corner had the best coffee. They served hot coffee to the people of the small town. They were very popular.

Card #20

Underline the adjectives

The wind was strong and the clouds were dark. Peter ran and ran. He didn't know where the evil monsters were and he didn't want to find out. Peter was brave and strong.

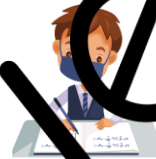

Card #1

Underline the adjectives

Amy was a young girl but she had big dreams. She wanted to be a rich doctor, just like her smart mother. Her father was quiet and kind.

Card #2

Underline the adjectives

The old house stood quietly on the corner of the scary street. No one lived in it. It was big and dirty. The people in the area were terrified.

Card #3

Underline the adjectives

Noisy birds chirped and the tall trees danced in the wind. The green grass was quiet as tiny worms made their way through the dirt.

Card #4

Underline the adjectives

Peter was fast. He played on the best soccer team in the city. They won every game and their coach was very smart.

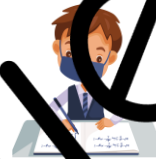

Card #5

Underline the adjectives

Mandy was happy that school was finished. She thought school was boring and her teacher was mean. Her homework was very hard.

Card #6

Underline the adjectives

The black cats ran away from the loud dogs. The cats were quiet and peaceful, but the dogs were mean and scary. They hated each other.

Card #7

Underline the adjectives

Her sister was so kind that she gave away all of her nice toys. Her brother was mean and picked on the weak kids. He was very nasty.

Card #8

Preview

Underline the adjectives

John's clothes were fancy. His dad was rich and bought him anything. He bought him nice toys and new shoes. John was a lucky boy.

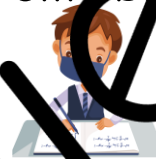

Card #9

Underline the adjectives

The mountain was tall and scary. However, the team of climbers were not afraid. They were brave and adventurous. They began their climb.

Card #10

Underline the adjectives

The dirty rats ran all over the yard. Their little feet were disgusting and their smell was strong. They had long, black tails.

Card #11

Underline the adjectives

His baseball team were not very good. They always lost and were sad all the time. Their uniform was blue which reflected their feelings.

Card #12

Underline the adjectives

Andy ran for his life. He was scared, but he was fast. There was no way the giant trolls would catch him. They were far too slow.

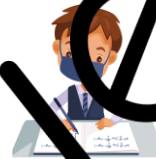

Card #13

Underline the adjectives

Her blue pen broke, so she used her red pen. The teacher, who was mean, told her off for using pen. However she wasn't afraid of her teacher.

Card #14

Underline the adjectives

The cheeky fox stole five loaves of bread from the small bakery on the corner of the street. The owners were angry, but the fox was fast.

Card #15

Underline the adjectives

His new shop was busy. There were many excited customers. They bought all of the new products and were very happy.

Card #16

Underline the adjectives

The nights were cold and the days were long. Peter did not know how he would survive the harsh desert. He had been lost for two terrible days.

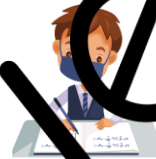

Card #17

Underline the adjectives

Tom didn't like pizza. He thought it was disgusting. Tom only ate small hamburgers and chicken nuggets. They were easy to eat and tasty.

Card #18

Underline the adjectives

The dirty chickens ran around eating tiny worms. They loved them and could eat them all day. The chickens were too fast for the small worms.

Card #19

Underline the adjectives

The café on the corner had the best coffee. They served hot coffee to the people of the small town. They were very popular.

Card #20

Preview